

LGC-6: Useful information

Registration

The registration will start at 8:30 am. There is no registration fee, but all participants will be kindly asked to sign in to receive the information package.

Internet and wi-fi

QU visitors can access the Internet through QU by logging into the QU Guest wireless network. It does not require a password, but you may be asked to register your mobile device on the QU network.

Dinner

The dinner for all conference participants is scheduled for 7 pm on Monday, April 1. The dinner will take place in The Village, a restaurant in the pedestrian area of Souq Waqif in Doha. The location is shown in the map below. You can get to the restaurant on your own or use transportation provided by QU; a bus will pick up our guests from the QU Library at 6 pm.

Sightseeing

We are enjoying a nice spring, with day temperatures around 25° Celsius. If you want to explore Doha, consider Trip Adviser (<https://www.tripadvisor.com/Attractions-g294009-Activities-Doha.html>) or Lonely Planet (<https://www.lonelyplanet.com/qatar/doha/top-things-to-do/a/poi/361125>) to find the sights of your choice. Among most interesting locations are the Souq Waqif market area, the Museum of Islamic Art (<http://www.mia.org.qa>), Katara Cultural Village (<http://www.katara.net>) and the Pearl area (<https://www.thepearlqatar.com>), the Museum of Modern Art (<https://www.moma.org>) and Qatar National Library (<https://www.qnl.qa>).
